

VISITOR RULES AND REGULATIONS HERBERSTEIN

TIERWELT HERBERSTEIN

Attention! – All animal gates are secured with electric fences and labelled separately!

The zoo assumes no liability for damages or injuries of any kind!

Parents or supervisors are responsible for their children!

Children and adolescents under 14 years old must be constantly supervised by adults.

Do not leave the marked paths.

Use of the playgrounds is at your own risk.

Barriers are there for your safety! Do not climb over, trespass beyond, or sit on barriers!

You must follow the personnel's instructions without exception.

You may not bring any animals onto the property except dogs on a short leash.

Dogs may not be brought into the castle.

Do not agitate, scare, throw things at, chase, or otherwise harass the animals.

Feeding the animals is forbidden in the entire park area! Do not bring any animal food with you.

Do not damage any plants!

The plants and berries located in the park are not suitable for consumption!

Avoid making noise!

Help us keep the park clean by using the numerous trash cans available!

Please note that smoking is prohibited throughout the whole zoo area and only allowed in designated areas!

If events are going on in the zoo, videos and photos might be made to document the event or for marketing purposes. If you do not agree to this, lodge this decision with the cash desk before visiting the zoo.

Do not knock on the windows!

You may not bring any bicycles, roller skates, roller blades, scooters, radios, balls, etc. with you.

By purchasing an entry ticket, you accept the complete contents of the Visitor Rules and Regulations. If you breach those rules and regulations, you may be ejected from the premises by our personnel and suffer possible legal consequences!

The zoo assumes no liability for damages or injuries of any kind!
